2. HEAD OFFICE

2.1 The head office of the Larrimac Golf Club shall be in the Municipality of Chelsea, Province of Quebec at such address as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors.

3.1 The seal impressed on the margin of this by-law shall be the Corporate Seal of the Club.

4. OBJECTS

4.1 Larrimac Golf Club is a non-profit corporation owned by the members and whose objects are to develop and maintain golf courses, tennis courts and such other facilities as determined by the Board of Directors, and to provide a social environment adapted to the needs of Club members and their guests.

5. MEMBERSHIP

5.1 Membership shall be obtained by submitting an application to the Secretary accompanied by the amounts required for Club membership as prescribed from time to time by the Board. (Amended April 15, 2026)

5.2 The membership year of the Club shall coincide with the calendar year. If, during the membership year, a member qualifies for and chooses to be registered in a different class of membership, the member shall submit an application for that purpose and tender the appropriate fees. Likewise, if a member intends to terminate a membership or change membership class, notice must be submitted by January 1 of the current fiscal year.

5.3 Membership fees, initiation fees and other assessments shall be determined by the Board of Directors. Should these fees vary more than 10 percent from fees charged in the previous year, the Board will require the recommended fees to be approved by the members at the Annual General or at a Special General Meeting of the Club. The Board of Directors may, from time to time, impose a special assessment which requires the approval of Club members. Such fees and assessments are due January 1 of each fiscal year, with late payments subject to an interest charge under such terms and conditions as are determined by the Board.

5.3.1 The Board of Directors may consider a member’s request, submitted in writing, for a sabbatical leave that may last for a period up to two (2) membership years as defined by article 5.2. For the sabbatical period granted, the member will give up all playing and voting privileges.

5.4 Classes of Members - The Club shall have five (5) classes of members - honorary, life, junior, adult, and corporate. These classes may be subdivided or grouped by regulation into categories for the purpose of assessing initiation fees, membership dues and other assessments.

community warrants the honour. Such memberships shall be limited to five (5) in number at any given time. The length of time for which such membership is granted will be at the discretion of the Board. Such membership shall not carry shareholder or voting rights but, may at the Board's discretion, include playing privileges.

b) Life - On representation of any five (5) members, the Board may at its discretion grant life membership to a member who has over a number of years rendered outstanding service to the Club. The number of life memberships granted in any one year shall not exceed two (2) and the total number of life memberships shall not exceed ten (10) at any one time. The Board may at its discretion grant junior-member status to children of non-members upon written application of the parent(s) or guardian and sponsorship by two (2) active Intermediate, Adult, Senior or Super Senior members and payment of the prescribed fees and any surcharge to be set by the Board. Junior members may have limited privileges and no rights to vote or hold office.

d) Adult - A person who has attained the age of nineteen (19) before the 1st of January of the membership year and older, whose application for membership has been accepted by the Board, who has paid the required initiation, club and membership fees and who has been issued a certificate for one share of stock. Adult members have clubhouse and playing privileges upon payment of the appropriate fees. Adult members have voting privileges at all meetings of members and the right to stand for offices.

e) Corporate - Any corporation, company or organization that has been accepted by the Board and paid the prescribed fees. The clubhouse and playing privileges and arrangements for corporate members shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Such membership shall not carry shareholder or voting rights.

5.5 Termination of Membership - A membership in the Club is not transferable and automatically terminates:

- a) when the member resigns or dies; or
- b) when a membership is terminated in accordance with article 5.5.1 or is suspended in accordance with article 5.6.

5.5.1 The Board may terminate a membership when an invoice for dues, fees or other assessment levied under the authority of article 5.3 of this by-law remains unpaid for more than sixty (60) days or such further period as the Board may allow following the date on which the invoice is due. Such person shall not be entitled to the refund of any fee. The Board may apply the share value against the member's outstanding account.

5.5.2 Notwithstanding the termination of membership, a former member remains liable for any assessment levied under the authority of Section 5.3 prior to termination of membership.

5.6 Suspension of Membership - Following a review into the conduct of a member, the Board may suspend membership of any member who has breached any of the terms of Club by-law and/or regulations of the Club without the refund of any fees.
